

Celebrating Story: Approaching change one story at a time

Call for Workshop and Presentation Proposals (8 - 9 October 2009, Melbourne)

Have you a passion around Story? You might be a coach, facilitator, change consultant, qualitative researcher, narrative therapist, OD professional... Could you share the ways that you have worked with Story? What ways have you found of working and helping people/teams/organisations through story?

This event will be one of the first change oriented story conferences ever held in Australia. With the theme of the conference being "Celebrating Story: Approaching Change One Story at a Time" we would like to invite you to submit a proposal for a workshop session.

This conference aims to provide a rich and diverse range of offerings from many differing backgrounds. Whether you are a narrative therapist, a dramatic artist or a change consultant working across diverse organisations such as Business, Government or Not-For-Profit we'd like to encourage you to make an offering for how you've worked with story/narrative, what you've learnt and what you've got to impart, share and celebrate.

Celebrating Story: Approaching change one story at a time

Event Location

To provide this two day event with a unique atmosphere we have chosen the Abbotsford Convent.

The Abbotsford Convent is an extraordinary place and is fast becoming an important arts, educational and cultural precinct in Melbourne. Just 4 kilometres from Melbourne's CBD, its 11 historic buildings, gardens and car park are spread over 6.8 hectares in a sweeping bend in the Yarra River and are surrounded by the Collingwood Children's Farm and Yarra Bend Park.
