

Melbourne Playback Theatre Company is expanding.

Seeking male & female actors with strong skills in improvisation

We are particularly interested in actors aged 20-30, from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Melbourne Playback Theatre transforms audiences' stories into improvised theatre, celebrating the diversity and commonality of human experience. The company performs more than 50 commissioned shows per year, in various corporate and community settings. MPTC rehearses Monday nights.

To see Melbourne Playback Theatre Company in action, come to our public shows held at The Carlton Courthouse, La Mama, Drummond st., Carlton November 28th and 29th 2009. See website for details.
